

Teach One Person One Thing

Pick one brother. Walk him through one thing. Watch him do it once.

This is the task the whole course has been driving toward. Pick one man — your wife, an older kid, a peer, a mentee, your pastor — and walk him through one thing you learned in these twelve weeks. Not a lecture. One thing, taught well, watched until he can do it once himself. What you've been given, you now give.

THE ACTION

- Pick one person and the one thing you'll teach them — make it concrete and useful to them.
- Walk them through it in person or on a call. Keep it to one thing, taught clearly.
- Watch them do it once themselves. Resist doing it for them.
- Report in the channel: who you taught and what they learned to do.

ONE MAN, ONE THING

Multiplication never starts with a crowd or a curriculum — it starts with one brother and one transferable skill. Teach it well enough that he could teach it to a third.

SCRIPTURE

2 Timothy 2:2 — "Commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also." You are the "faithful men" of someone's verse. Now be the Paul of someone else's.
